Abstract

The Modern East Asia Research Centre was launched in September 2006 to support, showcase and stimulate genuinely disciplinary research on the politics, history and philosophy of Greater China, Japan and Korea.

In our first semester MEARC has been able to host a diversity of ambitious conferences, workshops and seminars on these area bound disciplines.

MEARC feels very privileged and honoured that His Excellency, Mr. Jong-Moo Choi, Ambassador of Korea to the Netherlands is willing to bring this semester's lecture series to an appropriate close.

His Excellency will lecture on:
"Korean-Dutch partnership in a globalizing world".
